2025

Conference Information

This conference is a statewide professional and leadership development conference open to the following organizations: BPA, DECA, Ed Rising, FCCLA, FFA, HOSA, SkillsUSA, and TSA. The conference is an opportunity for you to join your fellow CTSO members from around the State of New Mexico to improve your leadership skills, participate in hands-on learning activities, sharpen your competitive knowledge, networking and have fun!

Registration Information

Each local advisor is responsible for completing the online registration and submitting it with the necessary fees to the address indicated on the invoice. Late registration will be accepted based on availability, will be an additional $10.00 fee.

NOTE: you will not receive a conference shirt if you register after this date. Absolutely NO on-site registrations.

Each school organization will be limited to the number of participants that it may bring to the conference. This is to maximize the number of schools that can participate. Each person attending the conference must be registered. This includes all participants, advisors, chaperones, and bus drivers. Each CTSO within the school is allowed to bring 6 students. For example, 6 BPA students and 1 advisor. 6 TSA and one advisor. Please register your chapter officers and top leaders. These should be your best students who will fully participate in the event and will share their experience with your other chapter members. If registration is not full, we will open for additional members. Please email Christine at christine.phipps@enmu.edu to be put on a waiting list.

Space is limited so get your registration done early!
